STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS

Starting immediately, you and your spouse are restrained from:

1. removing the minor child or children of the parties, if any, from the Lower Sioux Indian Community without prior written consent of the other party or an order of the Court;
2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage including life, health, automobile, any disability held for the benefit of the parties or their minor child or children; and
3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order from the Court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five (5) business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the Court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property or your own separate property to pay for an attorney to help you or to pay for court costs.
