

-Continue environmental staff training in order to improve the scientific and technical expertise of the Office of the Environment Staff.

Description: Increase and enhance the OE Staff expertise in order to obtain time-efficient, quality-assured, base of scientific and general data and information concerning all environmental media. This information will be utilized to develop protection programs, justify regulation, institute mandatory regulation, continue environmental education efforts, and respond to immediate environmental crises or requests for information.